Wondering how you can support the women in your community?
Do you or someone you know access the wonderful programs and services at our Centre?

Do you value the resources our Centre has to offer and want to make sure we are able to offer these services in your community?

If so, help us out.

Second Story Women's Centre is a non-profit organization. Our mission is to work to enhance women's lives by providing services and education designed to promote personal growth, community awareness, and social change. We work towards equality and respect within a women-centred environment and support women's rights to make their own decisions. We are proud to be serving the women of Lunenburg County for twenty-five years. By becoming a member, you will assist Our Centre in meeting the needs of the women in our community. Membership holders will receive a membership card allowing access to our video and book resource library and will receive weekly updates via e-mail on programs, special events, and "What's Happening" at the Centre.
